Critic's Corner

- Chianti Governo, Rene, Tuscany 92 pts 9/34
"Berries and plums with chocolate and hints of hazelnuts. Medium to full body with juicy tannins and a flavorful finish. Governo process gives this some kick in the fruit." James Suckling
- Chardonnay, Giapoza, Sonoma Coast 91 pts 9.5/38
Rich lemon curd, guava, tangerine zest with creamy layers of fruit and oak.
- Cabernet Sauvignon, Farnito, Tuscany 92 pts 79
A core of cherry and black currant flavors, wrapped in spicy black pepper, toasty oak. All supported by dense, pointed tannins and lively acidity with a long smoky finish.
- Amarone, Cesari Vento "Top 100 Wines of 2021" 93 pts 99
New leather, truffle, menthol, and baked plum aroma slowly emerge on this inviting, full bodied red. The velvety palate has fleshy black cherry, fig, tobacco, with polished enveloping tannins.

Pride of Italy

(the Italian bucket list wines that changed the world)

- Barolo, Bravo Cordara, Piedmont, Italy 60
"King of Wines, Wine of Kings", a worthy candidate for one of the greatest wines in the world.
- Brunello di Montalcino, Podere La Vigna, Italy 79
Imagine a cherry branch broke off, rolled through the forest and hit a truck full of Gucci™ loafers.
- Barbaresco, Rivetti Massimo, Neive, Italy 65
Friends of the restaurant make this beauty from the best Nebbiolo grapes and with greatest care.
- Amarone, Vaona Veneto, Italy 75
The grapes are dried for over 120 days to concentrate the flavor and the rest is history.
- Chianti Classico Riserva, San Felice, IL Grigio 50
A walk through the Tuscan hills all bottled in a glass with cherry, balsam, forest floor and truffle notes.
- Montepulciano D'Abruzzo Riserva, Aldiano 40
First Riserva ever from the heart of Italy.
